Cub Scouts prep for the Derby

January's meeting was abuzz with activity as we lended a hand to Cub Scout Troop 33 in their preparation for an upcoming pinewood derby. With 10 Webelos attending, some with one than one car to prepare from a raw block, it was a busy meeting. The Guild donated packs of art paint and brushes for the scouts to take home at the end.

Thanks to all members in making it fun for everyone. Special thanks to Chuck Skelly and Wayne Scholtz for running the bandsaws, John Schneeweis on the spindle sander, and Jeremy Noblitt with hand files and rasps.

It certainly seems that making things with your hands and wood is still alive and well in the Scout's DNA. Good luck at the derby and we look forward to seeing you at a guild meeting in 2026!

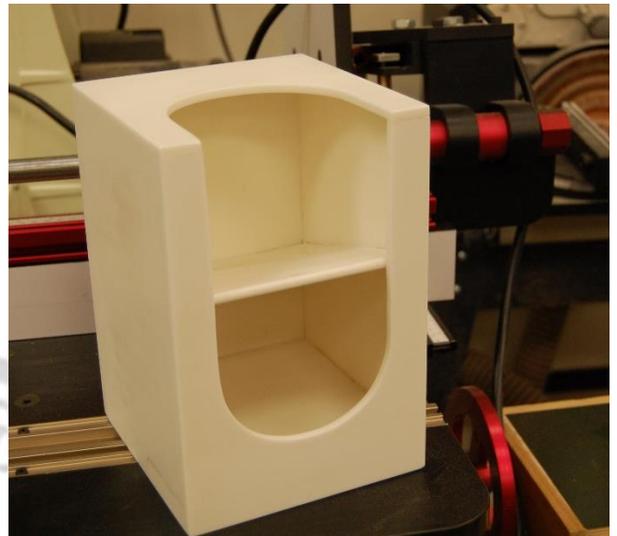

Troop 33 and their cars... wheels and paint next!

Woodwords on the Brandywine

Rich Libera K-cup holder made from leftover scraps of Corian. Rich used his standard tools to cut and plane, and used epoxy on the joints.

Jim Kirkbride opened up the scouts' eyes that great wood can be found in the firewood pile, and grabbed their attention with the beauty of a spalted wood turning of his. After handling the turned ring, one of the scouts asked "this is really wood?"

Our treasurer, Jeremy Noblitt, is now collecting 2019 dues ($35).
